

I would like to express my opposition to the relaxation of media ownership regulations. Allowing Clear Channel to own more than 1300 stations has all but dried up any independence of radio stations and the ability for people to express themselves without millions of dollars. This proposed change will have the same effect by stifling the ability of Americans to express independent ideas and innovate rather than thinking about the corporate bottom-line.